

October 10, 2014

Dear Sir or Madam,

It is my pleasure to extend an invitation for your esteemed presence the Annual Cable Conference hosted by BACCO which this year will run under the headline:

“ The Broadband Future – regulations, business strategies, content ” and will be held on NOVEMBER 12 - 13, 2014 at RIU Pravets Resort Hotel with high-level participation from leading platform operators, the Bulgarian Government and regulatory authorities, legislators, industry bodies and both national and international experts in the sector.

The two-day event will be structured around several working sessions combining keynote speakers and expert panel discussions.

On behalf of BACCO and the entire Pay TV and broadband community in Bulgaria it would be a special privilege to welcome you as a guest of this high-level industry forum where I hope you would join the most prominent market players, government officials and industry experts in mapping the broadband future of the media & telecom sector in Bulgaria.

Thank you in advance for your kind consideration and I shall look forward to welcome you at the 2014 Bulgarian cable conference in November.

Sincerely yours,

Dimitar Radev
President of The Board
BACCO
